

FORTY YACHTS IN MANHASSET RACES

Large Fleet Will Sail in Eighth Annual Regatta Saturday on the Sound.

Forty yachts have been entered in the different classes for the eighth annual regatta of the Manhasset Yacht Club to be sailed on the Sound off Long Island City tomorrow. All regular classes of sloops, New York one design, 21-foot racers, launch and American 21-footers, 35-foot knockabouts and all one design and handicap classes are eligible.

The larger classes will sail a course of twenty-one nautical miles and all below the New York thirties and one-half mile. The winning time will be given at 12 o'clock.

Handicapper Granbery has arranged the following allowances in the handicap class: G. P. Granbery's Ruben, scratch; L. Dyer's Huntress, M. E. Fenhas's Emily and F. M. Wicks's Little Peter, 1 per cent; George Meyer, Jr.'s Howdy, 2 1/2 per cent; Dr. A. E. Black's Thelma, Dr. J. B. Palmer's Nalad, and C. S. King's Tillam, Jr., 5 per cent; H. C. Phipps's Grasshopper, 7 1/2; Warren's Minkus's Sander and C. M. Volz's Kenosha II, 9; B. R. Stoddard's Nudge, 11; G. E. Gardland's Robin Hood, 12 1/2; and W. R. Berth's Kenosha, 14 per cent.

Commodore A. H. Alker has placed his steam yacht Florence at the disposal of the regatta committee and press. Visitors from New York who attend the races are notified to take the 9:30 A. M. train on the Long Island Railroad from Third-fourth street, Manhattan for Port Washington. The club stage will meet that train for the club at the club.

Atair Win First Race.
George C. Meyer's Atair won the race of the thirty-footers in the opening event of the New York Yacht Club at Long Island City yesterday. The Atair, a 30-foot sloop, sailed from the clubhouse at 11:30 A. M. and won the race in 22 minutes and 30 seconds. The second place was taken by the 30-foot sloop, the Nalad, in 23 minutes and 30 seconds. The third place was taken by the 30-foot sloop, the Emily, in 24 minutes and 30 seconds.

Williamsburg Regatta.
The annual spring regatta of the Williamsburg Yacht Club will be held on Sunday, June 10, over the regular triangular course in Flushing Bay. Several new yachts in the club fleet are entered in this regatta, and a good race may be looked for. After the regatta a reception will be held at the clubhouse and an entertainment provided.

Canard's Club Run.
There will be a club run of the Canard Yacht Club on Sunday to the Jamaica Bay Yacht Club, on the opposite side of the bay.

The $17.13 Man.

BY WALTER A. SINCLAIR.

(Dr. E. R. E. Holt says a man's cash value at seventy years is $17.13.)

At seventy the price of Man is certainly not much. Old Dr. Holt declares it isn't much more than a "touch"—mere car fare, just a bagatelle, when tallied with the price He labels on the youngsters not yet laid upon the ice. It isn't very comforting to Holt-and-Osler gents To rate at seventeen cold plunks plus only thirteen cents.

Now, Dr. Holt, this value for a carcass is a "sting." Why can't you add to this how much the by-products would bring? (Which same is in the language of the good old Packing Trust.) Pray, isn't there a higher rate you might perhaps adjust? Your human calculations raise a holler that's immense, Because you made the old boys feel much more like thirty cents.

Let's just take up this question now and see what we can see: A few years hence that figure will be tagged upon John D. And just look at the Senate! Isn't New York in a fix? For Tom and Chauncey add just thirty-four plunks twenty-six! Will Andy give his cash away—as are his good intentions? And be worth seventeen chill bucks plus thirteen little cents?

Oh, Doctor, light your pipe again and cool your head with ice. Some septuagenarians must rate above your price. The chloroform has been enough—as you are sure to know. Why rub it in by putting down the market price so low? Some seventy-year-olds you'll find of greater consequence Than those marked seventeen small bones plus thirteen tiny cents.

The start will be made at 11 o'clock from the clubhouse, a large number of boats taking part. The boats will sail from the clubhouse at 11 o'clock. The boats will sail from the clubhouse at 11 o'clock.

Yacht Niagara Arrives.
Howard Gould's steam yacht Niagara arrived here last night from Southampton, where it left on May 24. With Mr. Gould were his wife, W. H. Hall and several other guests. The yacht has been cruising in European waters for four months and made the run from Horta in the Azores island in less than seven days.

Bay-side Races Saturday.
The Bay-side Yacht Club, at Bay-side, L. I., announces this race for tomorrow afternoon in the trophy and mixed classes and for launchers. The first race starts at 3 o'clock. The club will give an entertainment and dance at the clubhouse in the evening.

Indian Harbor's Big Race.
The Regatta Committee of the Indian Harbor Yacht Club announces a number of races from Saturday, June 23, to the following Sunday for the start of the big cruising season from Greenwich to New London. Races being started on the eighth-mile run at 8 o'clock in the morning. This will be one of the most important racing events of the season, entries having been promised from all the main line of prominent yachts, and it would not be surprising if 200 boats were in the big fleet. Besides the Yale-Harvard boat races at New London to attract the visitors, there will be the start of the ocean race to Montserrat on June 20, when the best of the racing yachts will rendezvous in New London harbor.

The Atlantic Boat Club announces its first annual annual regatta, to be held at the Hackensack House, East Rutherford, N. J., Saturday, June 16. Special arrangements are being made for a successful event. The regatta begins at 2 o'clock and New York spectators will take the Hudson River car at Hoboken ferry to Hackensack bridge.

FARMER GOT GAY ON STOLEN ROLL

Hackensack Neighbor Had Him an Ingenious Bartender Put Into Cells.

William Schocker, a Hackensack farmer, slept early today in cell No. 5 at Police Headquarters. He didn't want to, but Henry Parnbeck, also of Hackensack, and also a farmer, insisted because, he said, Henry had walked off with a gold watch chain and $50 in good money that belonged to him. William was found in a saloon on First avenue, where he was entertaining all who would partake. He was arrested by Detectives Starford and Strinsky, of the Central Office. At first he was not at all inclined to go, but he finally left by the rear door feet first. He went out at 10 o'clock. The bartender, who had been waiting for the roll of $10 and a flag. Later, at headquarters, he sequenced and told all he knew. The police went back to get the roll and the bartender, Alter Jameck, denied ever having seen more than $10 at a time. They searched the bar and found the money in a cracker jar. Then they arrested Jameck and took him to a cell, charging him with receiving stolen property. The two men were later arraigned in court.

NEW YORK CITY

YOUR Money Buys Brill Clothes, But BRILL Money Backs Them.

Every garment MUST be good, MUST fit, MUST give entire satisfaction. We couldn't afford to have it otherwise. We've told you much about the good values—the big money's worth—we give, and how we are able to give them. For practically the same reasons we give you a high standard of quality. Close mill connections enable us to choose first among the fabrics loomed. We dictate to subsidiary tailoring organizations how well the clothes in work for us must be tailored, and we ourselves can watch every step in the making.

Leading tailoring institutions do their best work for Brill's because they want volume business—the Brill account means volume business—and they hope to get still larger Brill orders if the clothes they make please us and our customers.

Always ready to "make good," we are seldom called upon to do so because the high quality of such clothes as these described below makes plenty good in the first place.

Comfort Clothes

Thin, tropical weight garments that are comfortable not alone because of their lightness but also because of their correct fit, shapeliness and smart style.

- $10 for gray worsted flannel two-piece suits, strictly all wool, superior tailoring; 3/4 lined with alpaca; value 1/2 more.
- $12.50 for high-grade gray tropical worsted two-piece suits of hand-some new Glen check and neat gray mixture and stripe effects; 3/4 and 3/4 lined with alpaca.
- $15 for tropical worsted two-piece suits, in several entirely new cool gray shades. Unusual values under $20.
- $20 for smartest, thinnest tropical worsteds and London flannels. Garments exemplifying finest known ready-to-wear tailoring—garments most critical dressers wear with utmost satisfaction. Many new, exclusive colorings and models; 3/4, 3/4 and 3/4 lined with alpaca, Mervilleux or pongee silk.

Children's Wash Suits

- 48c for serviceable and handsome wash suits that would be good value at 75c.
- 98c for excellent $1.48 wash suits of pretty Galatea, chambray, pique and duck. Strictly fast colors.

Children's Suits

- $1.95 for all-wool blouse and double-breasted suits; $3 values. Sizes somewhat broken.
- $3.95 for $6 Dudley 4-in-1 Combination Suits, with two pairs of trousers; sizes 7 to 16.

Mixture Suits

Lightweight garments, full or half lined, of worsted, cheviot and cassimere, in desirable patterns—mostly grayish.

- $10 for mixture suits of popular grays, light and dark shades, neat mixtures, that would be good value at 1/2 more. Will hold shape, fit, style and color until worn out.
- $12.50 for hand-tailored suits, gray mixtures, in worsteds and cassimeres, gray serges and black unfinished worsteds, that are good values at $16.50.
- $15 for suits of gray worsted, cassimere and chevots, and for blue unfinished worsteds suits. Tailoring, fabrics, trimmings and models are up to usual $20 standards.
- $20 for mixture suits in finest weaves of worsted, cassimeres and light velours, from foremost tailor shops in the land—garments that express in line, tailoring and service all that is best in ready-to-wear clothing.

Youths' Suits

- $6 for young men's suits of all-wool blue serge and fancy mixtures; sizes 14 to 20, that would be excellent value at $8.
- $8 for young men's suits of all-wool blue serge, black thibet and patterned chevots, worsteds and cassimeres; excellent $10 and $12 values.

Serge Suit Extras

It's to be a great Blue Serge season. Brill stores are fully prepared for it.

- $10 for all-wool blue serge suits, lined with cool alpaca; will hold shape, fit, style and color until worn out; all sizes in new models; value 1/2 more.
- $13.50 for U. S. Blue Serge suits. Probably last lot we shall ever have to sell at $13.50. Cost has advanced 25% since we first introduced them, yet these are same grade as 10,000 suits we've sold at $13.50 in last two years and have never received a complaint. Warranted journeyman tailored, warranted fast color, not to fade or crock, not to pull out at seams or cockle at edges. Warranted best value in America under $20.
- $16.50 for serge suits on "Derby" models, the smartest designs in New York. Fabrics dyed deepest blue; pliable and porous; light weight but strong. Extreme style and value—reasonable at $20 and $22.50.
- $18 for silk-lined journeyman tailored serge suits. If you paid $18 for journeyman tailored suits without silk lining the price would be right. Silk lining costs $5 extra—you save $5.
- $20 for serge suits from 6 foremost tailoring institutions in America, including our own Shop L. B. Highest type ready-to-wear garments possible to produce. Fully a dozen new models; every new weave and shade; exceptional garments at the price.
